NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT

Schaub v. Chesapeake & Delaware Brewing Holdings, LLC and Iron Hill Brewery, LLC, 2:16-cv-00756-MAK
United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania

TO: [INSERT NAME]

YOU ARE COVERED BY THE SETTLEMENT OF THIS CLASS/COLLECTIVE ACTION LAWSUIT.

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT HAS AUTHORIZED THIS NOTICE, WHICH SUMMARIZES THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT AND EXPLAINS YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE SETTLEMENT.

PLEASE READ THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY.

| |
|--------------------------------------|
| 1. What is the Lawsuit About? |
|--------------------------------------|

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (“the Court”) presides over this lawsuit, which was filed in February 2016 by Matthew Schaub (“Plaintiff”) against Chesapeake & Delaware Brewing Holdings, LLC and Iron Hill Brewery, LLC (collectively “Iron Hill”).

The lawsuit alleges that Iron Hill violated federal and state wage laws by requiring servers and bartenders to share tips with Expos (a.k.a. Expeditors). Plaintiff asserts that, due to this alleged “tip sharing” violation, Iron Hill is not allowed to count servers’ and bartenders’ tips towards Iron Hill’s obligation to pay the minimum wage (which currently stands at $7.25/hr. under federal and Pennsylvania law; $8.25/hr. under Delaware law; and $8.38/hr. under New Jersey law). Thus, Plaintiff seeks to recover the difference between the minimum wage and the wage that Iron Hill actually paid (which generally was $2.83/hr. in Pennsylvania; $2.23/hr. in Delaware; and $2.13/hr. in New Jersey).

The lawsuit and settlement is strictly limited to the time period (i) between February 17, 2013 and June 30, 2016 for Iron Hill’s Pennsylvania restaurants and (ii) between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2016 for the Delaware and New Jersey restaurants. This time period is referred to as the “Relevant Period.”

Iron Hill adamantly contends that the lawsuit lacks merit. According to Iron Hill, its pay practices were entirely legal and, in the absence of this settlement, Plaintiff would lose his case.

| |
|--------------------------------------|
| 2. Why is there a settlement? |
|--------------------------------------|

The Court has not decided who will win the lawsuit. So both Plaintiff and Iron Hill run the risk of losing.

The settlement is a compromise. It allows the parties to avoid the costs and risks of further litigation and provides money to Plaintiff and other settlement participants without additional delay.

In reaching this settlement, Iron Hill has not admitted that it violated any laws. On the contrary, Iron Hill continues to assert that its pay practices were entirely legal.

3. What does the settlement provide?

The Court will decide whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If the Court approves the settlement, a total amount of $1.29 million will be distributed to Plaintiff, all individuals who join the lawsuit, and Plaintiff's lawyers. After reductions for attorney's fees and other expenses, approximately $888,000 will be distributed to individuals who join the lawsuit in response to this Notice.

If you join the lawsuit and the Court approves the settlement, you will receive a payroll check in the minimum amount of [$Settlement Share Assuming 100% Participation Rate]. This amount may be increased, depending on how many individuals choose to participate in the settlement. Because any settlement payment represents wages, it will be reduced to account for taxes and withholdings ordinarily incurred by both employers and employees.

4. What are my options, and what legal claims do I give up?

Under the settlement, you must choose one of the following three options:

Option 1 – Complete and Return the Enclosed Form by the ___, 2016 Postmark

Deadline: You will find enclosed a form entitled "Consent to Join FLSA Collective Action and Participate in Settlement" along with a postage-paid envelope. You will receive your pre-tax payment of at least [$Settlement Share Assuming 100% Participation Rate] IF AND ONLY IF you complete and return this Form by the ___, 2016 postmark deadline to: Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit, c/o [insert Administrator name and address]. In addition, the Court must ultimately approve the settlement in order for you to receive your payment. As indicated in the enclosed Form, by claiming money under the settlement, you will waive your right to bring or join any legal proceeding alleging that, during the Relevant Period, Iron Hill failed to pay proper wages in violation of any federal, state, or local law or theory.

Option 2 – Do Nothing: If you do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will not receive any settlement payment. You will be free to bring your own legal proceeding against Iron Hill under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq. However, you will waive your right to bring or join any legal proceeding alleging that, during the Relevant Period, Iron Hill failed to pay proper wages in violation of any other federal, state, or local law or theory.

Option 3 – Exclude Yourself from the Settlement: If you do not want to participate in the settlement, you must prepare a note or letter simply stating: "I wish to be excluded from the Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit." The letter or note may be typed or handwritten. Be sure to include your signature, name, address, and phone number. To be valid, your exclusion request must be postmarked no later than ___, 2016 and be mailed to: Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit, c/o [insert Administrator name and address]. You may use the enclosed postage-paid envelope to mail your exclusion request. Importantly, if you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will not receive any settlement payment, you will not be legally bound by the settlement, and you will not waive or release any legal claims against the Iron Hill.

5. Do I have a lawyer?

Plaintiff and all other individuals who join the lawsuit are represented by Winebrake & Santillo,

LLC, 715 Twining Road, Suite 211, Dresher, PA 19025; Phone (215) 884-2491; Web www.winebrakelaw.com. Lawyers from this firm will answer your questions about the lawsuit and settlement free of charge and in strict confidence. If you call the firm, please identify yourself as a "Class Member" in the "Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit" and ask to speak with one of the assigned lawyers.

6. How do the lawyers get paid?

The law firm identified in Section 5 above has worked on this lawsuit since the beginning without being paid. Under the settlement, the firm will ask the Court to approve legal fees and expenses of $387,000. After this amount is reduced to account for expenses, the resulting legal fee will equal approximately 28% of the total $1.29 million value of the settlement. You will not pay any legal fees or expenses out of your individual settlement payment.

7. How can I object to the settlement?

You may object to the settlement if, for any reason, you believe it is unfair or should not be approved. The Court will consider your objection in deciding whether to approve the settlement.

To object to the settlement, you must prepare a letter or note stating that you "object" to the settlement in the Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit. The letter or note may be handwritten. Be sure to include your signature, full name, address, and telephone number. You may (but are not required to) consult with or retain an attorney to assist you in drafting the objection. If you are not being assisted by an attorney, simply do your best to describe the reasons why you object to the settlement.

To be valid, your objection must be postmarked on or before ___, 2016 and must be mailed to: Iron Hill Wage Lawsuit, c/o [insert Administrator name and address]. You may use the enclosed postage-paid envelope to mail your objection.

8. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You are not required or expected to attend that hearing. However, you are welcome to attend.

The hearing will take place on ___, 2016 at ___ in Courtroom ___ of the United States Courthouse, 601 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106.

During the hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court also will consider all written objections to the settlement and will hear from any Class Members (or their legal representatives) who wish to be heard.

9. How do I obtain more information?

This Notice summarizes the most important aspects of the proposed settlement. You can obtain further information by calling the law firm listed in Section 5 above.
